authority of same that Ordinance Number 99, known as the “Forsyth County DOOR-TO-DOOR SOLICITATION ORDINANCE,” is hereby enacted.

Sec. 99-1. Intent and Purpose.

The intent of the Board of Commissioners in enacting this article is to regulate the sale of goods and services by solicitors or canvassers at residences in the County in order to diminish criminal activity in the County and abusive techniques utilized by any such solicitor or canvasser which adversely affect the public health, safety and welfare in the County. This article is not intended as a de facto prohibition of door-to-door solicitation, nor is it an attempt to adversely affect interstate commerce. Instead, this article is intended to balance competing interests, reduce criminal activity and protect County citizens from abusive sales techniques versus the conduct of proper commercial sales activity. This article is not intended to allow any business activity which would otherwise be unlawful.

- (d) Entry on private property. No solicitor/canvasser shall enter a home without the express invitation of the occupant or owner. If a "no soliciting" sign is posted, no soliciting shall be made.
- (e) Courteous conduct required; compliance with request to leave premises. A solicitor/canvasser shall at all times maintain a courteous decorum and shall not use opprobrious, vulgar or slang words to any homeowner or occupant. No solicitor/canvasser shall remain upon the premises of an occupant or owner after such occupant or owner has requested the solicitor/canvasser to leave or indicated that he is not interested in purchasing the solicitor's/canvasser's product.
- (f) Misrepresentation of effect of permit. It shall be unlawful for any solicitor/canvasser to represent by word, action or deed that the issuance of a permit by the county license bureau in any way represents approval or condonation of either the actions of the solicitor/canvasser or his product.
