Definitions

Business means any person who, within the unincorporated areas of the county, engages in or causes to be engaged in and/or represents himself to be engaged in any occupation or activity with the object of gain, benefit or advantage either directly or indirectly. Any person advertising by any means, including but not limited to signs, cards, circulars and newspapers, that he is engaged in any business of any kind shall be liable for the appropriate occupation tax required under this article and the appropriate fee therefore.

Owner means a person that holds legal and/or equitable title to private property.

Property means a residential legal lot of record on which a short-term rental is located.

Number of Employees means all owners, the local contact person, and any other employees.

Short term rental means an accommodation for transit guests, rented for the purpose of overnight lodging for a period of less than (30) days. For the purposes of this definition, a short-term rental shall include all housing types but shall exclude Bed and Breakfast Inns and Boarding Houses, as they are defined by the Unified Development Code.

Business Tax Registration means a business license. This business license is obtained from the revenue collection office after the requisite occupation tax and/or regulatory fees has been paid to the revenue collection office. The phrase "business tax registration" and "business registration" are used interchangeably in this article.
