FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PUBLIC HEARING REGARDING FUTURE
FORSYTH COUNTY ANIMAL SHELTER

Citizen input sought at September 3 meeting

FORSYTHCOUNTY, Georgia – The Forsyth County Board of Commissioners will hold a public hearing Thursday, September 3 at 5 p.m., in the main conference room of the Forsyth County Administration Building to consider a proposal to locate the future Forsyth County Animal Shelter at a 15,800-square foot facility located at 1614 Peachtree Parkway.

The purpose of this public hearing is to seek public input and hear concerns regarding the possible use of this site for a future animal shelter. A final decision regarding the use of this site has not been made.

Additionally, Forsyth County is interested in receiving at the public hearing input and recommendations relative to other potential locations for a future animal shelter as well as public input relative to county construction and operation of a future animal shelter.

All Forsyth County residents and any other affected and/or interested persons are invited to attend. The Forsyth County Administration Building is located at 110 E. Main Street in Cumming.
