FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOLIDAY GIFT ANGELS SOUGHT
FOR LOCAL SENIOR CITIZENS

Forsyth County Senior Services program spreads holiday cheer to seniors

FORSYTHCOUNTY, Georgia – Take time to spread the holiday spirit to local senior citizens by getting involved with the 2010 Holiday Gift Angels Program presented by Forsyth County Senior Services.

“I have seen in past years how our senior citizens light up when they are presented a gift from the Holiday Gift Angels Program because they know someone in the community thought about them,” Senior Services Director Shelley Johnson said. “Through this program, local residents and businesses have the chance to really brighten the holiday season for our seniors and show they care.”

The gift request tags from senior citizens are now available at the Senior Center at Charles Place, located on Dahlonega Highway next to the Cumming Library. Each gift request tag contains the name of a local senior citizen as well as a gift idea for him or her.

Program participants may deliver the boxed and unwrapped gift with the gift request tag (or another tag with the senior’s name and route number) attached to Forsyth County Senior Center at Charles Place before December 7. The Center’s hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.
