

FORSYTHCOUNTY
Department of Communications
Release 000557
March 16, 2012

Contact: Jodi B. Gardner
Director of Communications
770.886.2802
JBGardner@forsythco.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FREE SHREDDING EVENT OFFERED FOR RESIDENTS

FORSYTHCOUNTY, Georgia – Keep Forsyth County Beautiful (KFCB) invites Forsyth County residents to shred documents and several other items free of charge April 23 through 27.

Personal paper documents, file boxes, CDs, DVDs, VHS tapes, empty prescription bottles and X-rays can be destroyed and recycled at no charge. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday, April 23, through Friday, April 27, citizens can bring these items to Shredderman Document Destruction Service at 3605 North Parkway in Cumming. The shredding is made possible by Keep Forsyth County Beautiful and Shredderman Document Destruction Service.

The free shredding is being offered in recognition of Earth Day. For additional information please contact KFCB at 770.205.4573.

###