

FORSYTHCOUNTY
Department of Communications
Release 000599
October 15, 2012

Contact: Jodi B. Gardner
Director of Communications
770.886.2802
JBGardner@forsythco.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORSYTH COUNTY SENIOR SERVICES HOSTING
PUMPKIN PALOOZA FALL FESTIVAL NOVEMBER 3

Attendees can enjoy arts, crafts, live music, food and more

FORSYTHCOUNTY, Georgia – Forsyth County Senior Services invites families to Pumpkin Palooza, an arts and crafts festival for all ages at Sexton Hall Enrichment Center from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, November 3. Admission to the event is free.

“We are very excited to be holding our first Pumpkin Palooza Fall Festival,” said Senior Services Interim Director Valerie Rhoads. “This will be an event for the entire family to enjoy.”

Pumpkin Palooza will feature a variety of live music and entertainment for the entire family including arts and crafts, food, inflatables and more. A Chunkin’ Pumpkin contest will begin at 11 a.m. for different age groups and there will also be a scavenger hunt. Winners from the contest and scavenger hunt will receive a Pumpkin Palooza T-shirt.

Sexton Hall Enrichment Center is located at 2115 Chloe Road, just off of Sharon Road between Peachtree Parkway and Old Atlanta Road.

For more information, call Forsyth County Senior Services at 770.781.2178.

###