FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORSYTH COUNTY ANNUAL REPORT
NOW AVAILABLE

Publication provides information on progress, accomplishments in 2013

FORSYTHCOUNTY, Georgia – Forsyth County government is proud to announce the Forsyth County 2013 Annual Report is now available for citizens. The annual report serves to inform residents about their county and provide information on recent progress and accomplishments.

The Forsyth County 2013 Annual Report provides information regarding the county government's projects in 2013, as well as financial data.

“We are proud to present this annual report as a way to not only keep citizens up to date on their county but also provide additional means of transparency regarding the county's operations,” County Manager Doug Derrer said. “We hope this publication serves to better acquaint citizens with their county government and the many services and programs provided.”

Copies of the Forsyth County 2013 Annual Report are available at the Forsyth County Administration Building located at 110 E. Main Street in Cumming. Visit the Forsyth County Web site at www.forsythco.com to view the publication online.
